

Outside Scholarships

The information below has been submitted by outside sources.

Useful financial aid and scholarship resource: www.finaid.org

Resources for Native American Students: The website of the American Indian Graduate Center <http://www.aigc.com>. Also: www.finaid.org/otheraid/natamind.phtml, or www.doi.gov/bureau-indian-affairs.html

Cancer Scholarship: Cancer patients and cancer survivors searching for scholarships, visit www.finaid.org/otheraid/cancer.phtml

College Assistance Migrant Program: A grant for migrant and seasonal workers to succeed in post secondary education provided by the Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives. Details: www.ed.gov/programs/camp/index.html. Application: www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/grantapps/index.html

'Prestigious' Scholarships: www.finaid.org/scholarships/prestigious.phtml,

Scholarships and awards for community service and volunteering: Check www.finaid.org/otheraid/otheraid/service.phtml.

Scholarships for 'average' students:
<http://www.finaid.org/scholarships/average.phtml>

National Scholars Honor Society scholarships: Up to $5,000 to high achievers from any academic pursuit. Details: www.CollegeHonors.org.

Sallie Mae Scholarships: Various scholarships for low-income and/or minority students. Deadlines vary. Details/application: www.salliemaefund.org.

Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarships: Scholarships for students studying abroad. Details at www.rotary.org/foundation/educational. Deadlines vary.

Institute of International Education: Various scholarships for overseas study. Details: Financial Aid Office or <http://www.iie.org/>. Deadlines vary.

NASFAA 9/11 Resource Page: Various scholarships for family members of victims of the 9/11 terrorist attack. Details: <http://www.nasfaa.org/redesign/ParentsStudents.html>. Deadlines vary.

"Top 10 Most Unusual Scholarships": A listing of some unusual scholarships featured on the FastWeb website. Go to <http://encarta.msn.com/encnet/Departments/FinancialAid/?article=MostUnusualScholarships>.

Hispanic College Fund: Undergraduate students from Hispanic background with 3.0

GPA, US citizen or permanent resident with financial need. Details:
www.hispanicfund.org.

Institute for Humane Studies Scholarships: Scholarships through IHS available through their website www.TheIHS.org/seminar.

AES Engineers Scholarship: Scholarship in the amount of $500 available through AES Engineers. Scholarship awarded based on "character," not GPA. Details and application essays: www.aesengineers.com/scholarships.htm. Deadline: September 15, 2008.